FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ARA Newmark Arranges $84.5M Sale of Colorado Portfolio
Two PeakView Deals Underscore Northern Market Strength

Denver, CO (February 2016) — ARA, A Newmark Company (ARA Newmark) announces the $84.5 million sale of two PeakView properties in northern Colorado – Horseshoe Lake in Loveland and T-bone Ranch in Greeley – to Steadfast Apartment REIT. Executive Managing Directors Terrance Hunt and Shane Ozment and Vice Chairmen Doug Andrews and Jeff Hawks represented the seller, Buckley Brothers, in the transaction. John Buckley, the founder and owner of Buckley Brothers, a private real estate company based in Denver, built both properties in 2002 and has owned them since. ARA Newmark marketed the properties separately but Steadfast Apartment REIT added both to its portfolio of more than $1.2 billion in assets across 11 states.

Hunt noted, “The competitive nature of the metro Denver market has motivated buyers to invest in other parts of the state. The sale of the PeakView properties is an excellent example of the strength of the Northern Colorado market and the attraction to value-add assets built in the early 2000s.”

Located at 341 Knobcone Drive in Loveland – just one hour north of Denver near Colorado State University – PeakView by Horseshoe Lake comprises 222 units and a strong value-add opportunity with 23 partially-renovated units already achieving rent premiums of up to $200. The asset was 94 percent occupied at the time of the sale.

One hour northeast of Denver, PeakView at T-bone Ranch occupies 4750 West 29th Street in Greeley, recently highlighted by Area Development magazine as one of the top job markets in the nation. This 224-unit property next to the University of Northern Colorado is another great value-add opportunity with seven partially-upgraded units that include black appliances, sprayed countertops and an average rent premium of $60, proving the market’s appetite for renovation programs. PeakView at T-bone Ranch was 93 percent occupied at the time of the sale.
