ARA New England Brokers Sale of 300 Bedford Street Mill in Manchester, NH
Historic mill complex is approved for 110 residential units.

Burlington, MA (April 2, 2012) – Atlanta-headquartered ARA, the largest privately held, full-service investment advisory brokerage firm in the nation focusing exclusively on the multihousing industry, brokered the sale of 300 Bedford Street, a mill conversion opportunity, fully approved for 110 units, located in the heart of Manchester, New Hampshire. The property sold to Brady Sullivan, a regional real estate development and management company that manages over three million square feet of mill, office, and industrial space. The seller, Philadelphia Management Company, was represented by ARA New England's Senior Broker, Terry Scott.

ARA New England reports that rental rates have shown stability in the Southern New Hampshire region, with Manchester demonstrating an average occupancy of 96% with limited concessions. This can be attributed to the steady job growth in the state, which boasts a 5.2% unemployment rate, 3.3 percentage points below the national average.
